現代中國文學批評 (Modern Chinese Literary Criticism)

This course is intended for students and junior researchers interested in the development of modern Chinese literary thought. It will discuss its roots in the ancient tradition and transformation under the impact of Western theories, including introducing some important thinkers from Taiwan.

課程大綱:

- 一、 言志傳統與神韻傳統：梁啟超與王國維
- 二、 文心雕龍與 Theory of Literature：王夢鷗
- 三、 抒情傳統與中國美典：陳世驥與高友工
- 四、 比較文學、翻譯、現代美感與道家美學：葉維廉
- 五、 文學美：藝術文類與實用文類：柯慶明

About the lecturer:

Prof. Ko Ch'ing-ming is the leading authority in Taiwan on Chinese literary criticism and literary theory, both traditional and modern, as well as respected authority on literary aesthetics. Prof. Ko studied Chinese literature at National Taiwan University, where he is currently teaching at the department of Chinese literature and also in the Institute of Taiwan literature (where he was director in 2005-2008). He is the author of a number of publications on Chinese literary criticism and history, essays and poetry.

The seminar will be held in Chinese language.

Registration:

Students and scholars interested in participation, please register with the Center before Feb. 28, 2010 (registration at: CCK-ISC@ff.cuni.cz).
